

Chapter 17	Assisting with Grooming
alopecia
dandruff
hirsutism
lice
pediculosis
scabies
who decides how the resident is groomed?
name the 3 types of pediculosis when brushing hair -- where do you start?
how can you untangle hair?
name 3 places a resident can have their hair shampooed residents with what condition should NOT be shampooed at the sink or on a stretcher are you allow to use a medicated shampoo?
what direction do you shave a man in?
can you shave an elderly resident's legs if they ask you to?
what is an anti-coagulant?
what is the difference between a safety razor and an electric razor?
who NEVER gets shaved with a safety razor?
is it your job to clean a safety razor after every use?
why a warm cloth to the resident's face BEFORE shaving?
can you use shaving cream?

are residents allowed to wear after shave?
can you shave off a mustache or beard?
how often should you comb a mustache or beard?
when is the best time to trim nails?
are you allowed to use scissors to trim nails?
how long should you let fingers soak?
how do you trim fingernails?
what is an orange stick and what is it used for?
are you allowed to file nails?
what are you observing skin for during nail care?
what is diabetic foot care?
what is foot care important for diabetics?
TOS
POW
what info do you need prior to dressing & undressing?
who gets to pick out what the resident will wear?
is it better to try and dress & undress a resident with AD at the same time every day? If yes, why?
when do we change a resident's clothes?
your resident has an IV, how will you change the gown? Which arm is removed 1st?

resident with IV, which are is put on 1st?
your resident's IV is on a pump, can you change the gown?
your resident's IV is on an IV stand flowing freely with gravity, can you change the gown?	